Security guard in lobby sent auditor to 2nd floor Central Filing, which closed at noon. Juan Bautista, who was in that 2nd floor office, returned to lobby with the auditor to remind security that his office closes at noon. Security had no other alternatives to offer the auditor, until the Security Manager asked if he could help. When told that public records were being requested, he suggested using the “house phone” to call the public information office. No one answered that number and auditor left a voice message. No one accepted records request.
